

OKCONNECT

Connecting our region's new leaders with
Oklahoma City's greatest opportunities

A program by the Greater Oklahoma City
Chamber and Leadership OKC

Let us help your company's leaders learn how to get involved in all that Oklahoma City has to offer. Sign them up for OKConnect, an exclusive, high-level orientation program to help business leaders learn more about the inner workings of Oklahoma City.

The details:

The program includes four sessions to help top-level executives and senior managers discover how to get involved in our community. They'll get behind-the-scenes insight into the city – from the City's earliest beginnings to the area's current growth and success.

- Geared toward newcomers to the community or a manager with a new or expanded role that requires community awareness and involvement.
- Limited to 60 participants. Cost is $500 for Chamber member companies and $600 for non-members.

Co-Chairs:

Jim Roth

Dean and Professor of Law, Oklahoma City University School of Law

Meg Salyer

Owner, Broadway Realty and Former Ward 6 Oklahoma City Council Member

When:

Thursday, September 15; location TBD; noon to 5 p.m.

Thursday, October 6; location TBD; noon to 5 p.m.

Thursday, October 27; location TBD; noon to 5 p.m.

Thursday, November 17; location TBD; noon to 5 p.m.

Apply today:

Visit www.okcchamber.com/okconnect and complete the online application by Friday, Sept. 2.

G R E A T E R
O K L A H O M A C I T Y
C H A M B E R

For more information, contact Marcus Elwell at melwell@okcchamber.com.

OKCONNECT OFFERS FOUR SESSIONS:

HISTORY AND OVERVIEW OF OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma is still relatively young and its past still affects how the community works. Participants will learn about founding of Oklahoma City, the state's and region's political history, an overview of the demographics and how these factors have shaped our city and more.

THE CITY'S PLAN TO SUSTAIN ECONOMIC GROWTH

People have worked hard for the success seen throughout Oklahoma City, but how does the region keep it up in the coming months, years and decades? This session will help you better understand the factors at play in Oklahoma City's economy and how the community is working to ensure inclusive growth for all residents.

OKLAHOMA CITY'S OUTLOOK FOR EDUCATION

As home to the state's largest traditional school district and many colleges and universities, the leaders of Oklahoma City know that our region's future success depends on the quality of its education providers. Hear how innovation, public/private partnerships and investments are making a difference in Oklahoma City's educational outcomes.

THE PATH FORWARD FOR OKLAHOMA CITY

The final OKConnect session will focus on some of the most exciting developments in Oklahoma City's community as leaders turn their focus to the region's future. Attendees will learn how to stay engaged in the community and will hear what is on the horizon for the metro from Oklahoma City Mayor David Holt.

"Time well spent! As a recent transplant to the state, my time at OKConnect was invaluable. Perfect balance of OKC past, present and future, and outstanding for networking. I now really feel connected and invested in our city."

-Former OKConnect participant

"I am a lifelong Oklahoman, but new to Oklahoma City. This program helped me learn about my new community and find ways to serve and give back. "

-Former OKConnect participant

