

Legislative Reception 2019

Get recognized by more than 200 advocacy-minded state leaders

DESCRIPTION

The Legislative Reception is held to discuss statewide legislative issues and network with Oklahoma's State Legislators. More than 200 community leaders attend to network as well as conduct business. All members of the legislature and state elected officials are invited.

WHO ATTENDS

This event is attended by key business leaders and elected officials from the Greater Oklahoma City region, along with legislators and elected leadership from across the state.

BENEFITS OF SPONSORING

Sponsorship of this event places your company in front of important decision makers and demonstrates your company's interest in legislative issues that affect the business community. It sends a strong signal of your support for business issues at our state legislature.
