

State of the Aerospace Defense Industry 2018

Support Oklahoma City's aerospace defense industry and its role in our economy

DESCRIPTION The aerospace industry plays a critical role in our region's economy. At this annual luncheon, we celebrate the industry's presence and hear from government and industry leaders about growth opportunities and challenges. Past speakers have included Senator Jim Inhofe, high-ranking Air Force officials and Governor Mary Fallin.

This luncheon attracts more than 300 attendees, including many who also play a vital role in growing this critical industry. Sponsors are highlighted at this event as the Chamber strives to create the best business climate for our companies and federal partners.

*Note: TLC members receive up to four tickets per their TLC membership investment.

WHO ATTENDS Military, community and business leaders; city and state officials; and local media

DATE Nov. 2018

BENEFITS OF SPONSORING This event places sponsors directly in front of aerospace leaders in the Oklahoma City area and highlights support for the aerospace and defense industries.
