

State of the City 2019

Reach attendees at the Chamber's largest event and hear Oklahoma City's new mayor reflect on exciting happenings and future plans for the city.

DESCRIPTION As the Chamber's largest event, more than 1,500 local leaders gather at the State of the City luncheon each year to be informed and inspired about Greater Oklahoma City. Don't miss a unique opportunity to hear newly-elected Mayor David Holt reflect on his first year and where the city is headed in the future. The Chamber chair also highlights the Chamber's major objectives. Sponsors will be recognized in front of elected officials, media and community and corporate leaders.

WHO ATTENDS CEOs and their employees; city and state elected leaders, civic leaders and local media

DATE Jan. 2019

BENEFITS OF SPONSORING With more than 1,500 attendees, the State of the City provides an opportunity for recognition and presence in front of one of the most important audiences in Oklahoma City each year. A visible presence here is a strong indication of support for Oklahoma City's future development.
