

State of the Schools 2018

DESCRIPTION By sponsoring the State of the Schools luncheon, your company demonstrates a commitment to advancing Oklahoma’s education. Hear directly from school leaders about the progress being made to turn the Oklahoma City Public Schools into a model urban school district. There will also be presentations about other key education initiatives. The luncheon is a chance for education leaders to update the public about Oklahoma’s higher education, Career Tech and MAPS for Kids initiatives. More than 600 local leaders interested in education attend each year.

WHO ATTENDS Approximately 600 people attend this luncheon each year, including CEOs and their employees, city and state elected leaders, supporters of public schools and members of the education community.

DATE Aug. 22, 2018

BENEFITS OF SPONSORING Your sponsorship of the State of the Schools event will highlight your company’s support of public education and Chamber goals for local schools. Sponsors will gain important exposure to city and state leaders and more than 500 attendees.

LOCATION National Cowboy and Western Heritage Museum
